A biomechanical approach for all disciplines

Centered

with Amy Lyn Jones

Sat-Sun 4/21-22

PHF welcomes the celebrated PSG regional qualifier & USDF silver medalist, Amy Jones! Amy's unique experiences as performer at Arabian Nights Dinner Theater, Lipizzaner Stallion rider, and trainer under Grand Prix riders, Todd Bryan and Anne Gribbons, have influenced her abilities as both a rider and riding instructor. She is adept at helping students cultivate an effective connection with their horses in a collaborative environment.

Individual riding lessons are available for riders of all disciplines and abilities, and auditors are also welcome to join the fun! Amy Jones' prowess as an instructor is unparalleled and her clinic features a highly interactive approach to learning for all who attend.

It is strongly recommended that riders and auditors stay for the maximum amount of clinic time to get the full educational experience!

Private lessons are $100/one day, $190 for both days; spaces are limited! Use of PHF horse is $25/one day, $45/both. Auditing is available for $25/day at the door. Overnight stabling is also available for $25/night (BYO feed; hay available for purchase).

We are located in Alexander, NC, less than 20 minutes from Asheville! Check out our web site at PegasusHillFarm.com for more info.
